

Quick Reference Table for Temporary Farm Workers Isolation Guidelines

	Bunkhouse	Hotel or Motel	Trailer
Capacity	Housing must enable TFWs to be 2 m apart from each other at all times (e.g. Beds must be at least 2 m apart).	Maximum of 1 TFW per bedroom unless additional capacity is approved.	Housing must enable TFWs to be 2 m apart from each other at all times (e.g. Beds must be at least 2 m apart).
Delivery and Pick-up Services	Where delivery of supplies (e.g. food, toiletries) or pick up of materials (e.g. garbage, laundry) is provided to the isolation unit, no person leaving or picking up these items are to come within 6 feet of each other or the other workers. Items can be left outside door for pick up.
Food and Water	For food that is prepared onsite or catered, a minimum of 3 meals/day or enough food for 3 meals/day is provided and is delivered to the door of the accommodation. Food supplies and deliveries must come from an approved source. Potable water must be provided.
Toiletries	Toiletries to be provided and delivered to door.	Toiletries to be provided and delivered to door. No in-room restocking of toiletries permitted during isolation period.	Toiletries to be provided and delivered to door.
Medical Supplies	Medical supplies to be provided as needed. Supplies to be delivered to door.
Cleaning	Cleaning supplies and instructions on use to be provided.	Cleaning supplies and instructions on use to be provided. No in-room housekeeping permitted during isolation period. Weekly linen change required.	Cleaning supplies and instructions on use to be provided.

Outdoor Access (e.g. smoking, exercise)	Permitted in designated areas, but must be monitored and not come within 6 feet of others.
Location/Spacing	Portables to have 10 m of space between units.	Rooms used for isolation must be separate from rooms used by general public. Where rooms are blocked in the wing of a hotel/ motel, general public are to be excluded from the area.	Trailer to have 10 m of space between units.
Health Monitoring	All persons in isolation to be monitored for symptoms daily. Records to be kept and provided to Lambton Public Health upon release from isolation.

